IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

In the "Available balance, posting order, and overdrafts" section of the Deposit Account Agreement under the question "How do we process (post) transactions to your account?", we are replacing the paragraph beginning with "Your available balance will be reduced by pending withdrawals" to include a new fee waiver, as follows:

Your available balance will be reduced by pending withdrawals, such as debit card transactions we have authorized and must pay when they are sent to us for payment. If your account has insufficient funds as reflected by your available balance, the bank may assess overdraft and/or non-sufficient funds (NSF) fees on transactions we pay or return during nightly processing. A pending transaction will typically remain pending until we receive it for payment from your account, but we must release the pending transaction hold after three business days for most transactions. These pending transactions may be sent to us for payment after they have dropped from your account, but we must pay them when we receive them for payment.

In some circumstances, previously-authorized transactions may be paid into overdraft if other transactions or fees have reduced your balance before the pending transactions are sent to us for payment. To minimize the number of overdraft fees in these circumstances, we track transactions that reduced your available balance while pending and caused overdraft fees on other transactions. If these transactions are presented for payment within 10 business days after they first appeared as pending, we will waive any overdraft fees on those transactions. In rare circumstances, the merchant presents transactions for payment with a different identification code than was used when the transaction was sent for authorization and we are unable to match them. In those cases, you may be charged an overdraft fee if the transaction is paid into overdraft.

In addition, in the "Available balance, posting order, and overdrafts" section of the Deposit Account Agreement under the heading "IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT FEES," we added the following:

We track transactions that reduced your available balance while pending and caused overdraft fees on other transactions. If these transactions are presented for payment within 10 business days after they first appeared as pending, we will waive any overdraft fees on those transactions. In rare circumstances, the merchant presents transactions for payment with a different identification code than was used when the transaction was sent for authorization and we are unable to match them.
